

MALAYSIAN CASE STUDIES ON CORPORATE DISCLOSURE – LESSONS LEARNT

INTRODUCTION

Corporate disclosure is the lifeblood of a vibrant capital market and Bursa Malaysia takes a serious view on the quality and timeliness of corporate disclosure. In the past, many companies and directors have been reprimanded and imposed with fines (in the director's personal capacity) by Bursa Malaysia. The best lessons are learnt from real-life case studies from the files of Bursa Malaysia. The case study approach will examine where the directors went wrong. Reference will also be made to the particular sections of the Listing Requirements that are relevant to the case studies.

OBJECTIVES

This comprehensive seminar enables participants to:

- Learn from the mistakes that other directors have made and why they were sanctioned,
- Examine the relevant key components of each disclosure requirements in the Listing Requirements, and
- Appreciate and apply the corporate disclosure requirements in a practical and sensible manner.

METHODOLOGY OF DELIVERY

An intense case studies approach facilitated by PowerPoint presentation and examination of relevant Listing Requirements provisions.
